HENRY L. JOHNSON ASKED TO RESIGN BY PRESIDENT WILSON

Senator Hoke Smith and Other Southerners Succeed in Effort to Get Rid of Negro Office Holders

FORMER ATLANTA NEGRO FIRST TO BE DROPPED

Johnson Asks Time to Straighten Out Affairs, but Is Expected to Get Out at Once or Be Discharged

WASHINGTON, June 19.—President Wilson today requested the immediate resignation of Henry Lincoln Johnson, the Atlanta negro who has been recording the deaths of the colored people for the past four or five years. The action of the president in calling for the resignation of Johnson is the result of the efforts of Senator Hoke Smith and other southerners to rid the government of service of negro office holders. Johnson, a Republican, has had several interviews with the president about the removal of Johnson. The president's request for his immediate resignation came as a complete surprise to Johnson, who has been in the office since 1910, owing to the fact that the president had been told that he should not be removed unless another negro was appointed to succeed him.

Johnson was at the capital this morning following the receipt of the president's request and expressed a desire to hold the office for a few days longer to straighten out his affairs. He requested that he be given the "loose ends" of his personal affairs. He requested that he be given the "loose ends" of his personal affairs. BIRMINGHAM TRYING TO HARP ON LAND COLLEGE

Committee to Receive Offers and Consider Locations Will Be Called into Session Before July 15

A great Methodist university is to be established in the southeast, the conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, somewhere east of the Mississippi in the southern states. The location will be decided soon. That much is known. Asa G. Candler, Atlanta member on the educational committee of the conference, returned Thursday night from his first session in Birmingham, Ala., where he turned to that information—except that the location is eligible and the opportunity is a committed authority. With Georgia Tech, A. G. Candler, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, returned Thursday night from his first session in Birmingham, Ala., where he turned to that information—except that the location is eligible and the opportunity is a committed authority.

MRS. JOHN HILL APPEALS TO MAYOR FOR THE DOGS

Asks Him to Veto Ordinance Requiring Them to Be Muzzled or Leashed

Mrs. John Hill, prominent in Atlanta society and woman's club circles, called on Mayor Woodward Friday morning to urge the veto of an ordinance passed by council last Monday requiring all dogs either to be muzzled or leashed when on the streets. For years there has been an ordinance requiring bull dogs to be muzzled on the streets. Recently alderman Nutting introduced an amendment giving bull dogs the same treatment as other dogs. The amendment was referred to the board of health, and so far as to all dogs, whether they be bull dogs or not, they must be muzzled or leashed when on the streets.

Minister Naon Hurries to Washington in Effort to Prevent Break in Negotiations for Peace

BOTH SIDES ARE FIRM IN CHOICE FOR RULER

Mexicans Demand Neutral as Dictator's Successor, but Wilson Insists on Selection of Constitutional

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Rómulo E. Naon, minister from Argentina, and one of the mediators at the Niagara conference, arrived here unexpectedly today. He did not go to the legation, but took quarters in a hotel near the White House. The return of the mediator to the Niagara conference for conferences with Carranza, Brin, or President Wilson, or both, at a time when the Niagara conference is making time and threatened with complete failure, was regarded as highly significant. If it was known among officials that Minister Naon was returning, it was carefully guarded. The minister went directly from the train which had brought him from New Haven and Cambridge, where he had been attending to his duties as minister to Argentina and Harvard university, to the uptown hotel where he took quarters in the state department and the White House. The White House it was said that President Wilson had not intended to see Naon's visit to Washington he had not intended to see the mediator to officials there.

It was thought, however, that the mediator's visit had been discussed at an early conference with Carranza, Brin, or President Wilson, or both, at a time when the Niagara conference is making time and threatened with complete failure, was regarded as highly significant. The New Orleans Rotary club will entertain the Atlanta Rotary club Saturday with a Creole dinner at the old Spanish restaurant, followed by a forty-five mile boat trip down the harbor. The party will arrive in Houston Sunday morning.

Fred Houser will preach a lay sermon in one of the big churches in Houston. All the principal parties will be occupied by well known Rotarians. The convention proper will open Monday. For one day the whole convention will be moved on special trains to various points of interest in Texas.

Friday night "The Red Roosters," the Houston boosters after carnival organization, will have a street pageant in honor of the rotarians, and at midnight all delegates will leave on special trains for a circle tour of the Lone Star State, where guests will visit various cities. They will visit San Antonio, Fort Worth, Dallas, Austin, El Paso and San Diego.

The party will set back in Atlanta about July 1.

INDICTMENT IS RETURNED AGAINST JIMMY WRENN

Attempt to Subornate Perjury in Leo Frank Case Is the Charge

Jimmy Wrenn, an employee of C. W. Burke, special investigator for the defense in the Frank case, was indicted by the Fulton county grand jury Friday for attempt to subornate perjury, the same charge on which Burke was indicted Thursday afternoon.

While Wrenn has not been arrested, Deputy Sheriff Plennie Minor stated he has been located and will be here Monday to make him a prisoner.

Wrenn is charged in the indictment with approaching Helen Ferguson, with the bearing of the extraordinary motion for a new trial this spring, and attempting to get her to change her testimony.

Helen Ferguson, in an affidavit introduced by the state on the hearing of the extraordinary motion for a new trial, for Leo Frank, declared that Wrenn, who is a young man, made, during the trial, a promise to her and promised to marry her if she would change her testimony. She alleged Wrenn was a young man, who was named during the unusual coup.

Wrenn was also indicted on her testimony to her as his father.

CHARTER COMMITTEE IS URGED TO AID SCHOOLS

Major Guinn Asks That 30
Cents Be Set Aside on Every Tax of $1

Major R. J. Guinn, of the board of education, went before the charter committee of general council yesterday afternoon and urged the committee to recommend to council a charter amendment setting aside for the maintenance of the public schools a sum of every $1 of tax revenue collected by the city.

Major Guinn made a very strong argument and favorably impressed the committee. To give the committee time to study over the proposition, and to give Major Guinn time to collect more facts, action was deferred until the next afternoon, at which time the committee will hear Major Guinn again.

The Guinn plan is to set aside, by vote of the board, a portion of the school revenue for school maintenance and to place this money in the hands of the board of education at the end of every year, for the board to distribute among the various expense accounts of the department, at which time the committee will hear Major Guinn again.

Detectives Guard Precious
Pictures at Auditorium—Exhibit Open, Free to Atlanta Public

With Special Detectives on guard to see that no picture is lost or stolen or suffers harm, the $2,000,000 exhibit of the Photographers' Association of America will be thrown open to the public at the auditorium Friday afternoon.

Friday morning the last meeting of the congress was held, with interest centering in the election of officers and the naming of the 1915 convention city, for which Indianapolis, San Francisco, Asheville and Omaha have entered strong bids.

With the last business concluded, the photographers will throw care aside and devote themselves to the entertainment of the people who have been host to them since the convention began. All Atlanta is invited to view the display Friday afternoon and many are sure to see the wonderful exhibit.

The main auditorium and the lobby is devoted to the manufacturers' exhibit, while the corridor on the first floor is lined with the pictures of photographers which were passed on by a committee of artists and given place as being the best examples of artistic photography.

There are several thousand photographs in the exhibit. Besides these, there are several motion picture exhibits which are open to the public. Those in charge will demonstrate the making of the motion picture from start to finish.

Four hundred of the convention delegates were guests of the local photographers and the Atlanta club at a dance on the roof garden of the club Friday evening.

Quite the list of the evening was a dance rendered by Mrs. George Brown, wife of the popular club president, with her dancing partner, John Green. The dance is known as "The Dance of the Butterfly," and is Mrs. Brown's own interpretation of the modern style of both graceful and unique and as danced by Mrs. Brown was enthusiastically received.

The roof garden was attractively decorated. Music, dancing and vaudeville made the occasion one of the most enjoyable of the many social festivities the visitors have been tendered.

ACTOR AND WIFE WEEP WHEN VERDICT IS GIVEN

Marshall, Known as "Great Rhynota," Is Sentenced to Three Years

Edward Marshall, known to the vaudeville stage as the "Great Rhynota," was sentenced Thursday afternoon to three years' service in the state penitentiary by Judge Price Edwards, following his conviction in the Fulton superior court on a charge of shooting at C. Ross, colored, during an attempt to hold-up and rob the negro bank at 200 Auburn avenue.

Marshall's pretty young wife, who had stood steadfastly by the magician, despite the efforts of her wealthy parents to induce her to leave the actor and return to their northern home, was with him in the court room, when the jury brought in the verdict of guilty, and, affecting as it followed the court's declaration that they must be separated for three years.

Marshall pleaded not guilty, but Ross identified him as the man who fired on him twice and then struck him over the head with an iron rod. Numerous negroes identified Marshall as the man who ran from the bank building when Ross raised the alarm, and a street car conductor completed the identification by testifying that Marshall, being chased by a crowd of negroes, boarded his car, and attempted to escape, admitting that he had just had a trouble with some negroes. Attorneys Hill & Wright, who represented the actor, may file a motion for a new trial.

The prosecution of the case was conducted by Attorney John Moore, employed by the bank, and R. B. Shropshire, assistant to the superior court.

Following the Marshall trial, the criminal division of the superior court adjourned for the term.

THEATERS

(criticism of initial performance at the usual time, which will be made by the Journal staff. All other matter appearing in this column is furnished by "better sources" or "other sources.")

The most talked of playlet presented at the Forthright for some time is "Wives of the Rich," which has scored undoubtedly one of the biggest successes in the history of the house. Presented by Claude Gillingwater and Miss Edith Lytle, foremost players, and a capable company, the act gets over the footlights in a most convincing manner.

Among the most popular acts are Genaro and Bailey, who have added new material to their specialties, and Miss Emma Francis and her Arab Boys, a singing, dancing and tumbling novelty.

Next week's offering will be headed by Paul Armstrong's satire, "Save One Girl." Mr. Armstrong will be remembered as the author of "The Deep Purple," "Salome Jane," etc., and this one-act drama is said to equal the best of his work.

If the pessimistic prophets who several years ago gave up their hopes for the progress of the moving picture drama could only get a chance to glimpse the huge audiences that are attending the Grand theater this week for "Nuptials of the Daughters," the big movie sensation featuring Annette Kellermann, they would see massive overflows crowds flooding the big lobby plumb to the sidewalks and clamoring for admittance to a picture that has become the talk of the town.

Four performances daily. Matinee 2 o'clock and 7:30. Night performances 7:30 and 9:15 o'clock.

Two large audiences witnessed the performances of the Jewell Kelly company yesterday at the Bijou. It is the general opinion of patrons of the house that "Nuptials of the Daughters" is one of the best and most interesting plays that has been offered by the popular stock company so far.

Considerable interest is being shown in next week's play, a Russian melodrama entitled "For Her Sake," a four-act drama from the pen of W. L. Roberts, who has given the stage in recent years some of its best plays. The cast featured in "For Her Sake" will call for the entire strength of the company, and the play will have a splendid scenic setting. Ladies will be admitted free Monday night as usual.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO. 122

"IT COSTS"

"Christ, though he was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich."

—II Cor. 8-9

Governor Slaton says:

"It costs the taxpayers money to maintain the convict camps."

He fails to mention the men chained leg to leg—men sleeping chained to one another and to the walls—men spending Sundays and holidays in chains—men beaten and dying beneath the cruelty of convict guards.

Governor Hooper of Tennessee more rightly estimates the cost. He says of Georgia's prisons:

"I cannot trust myself to express my feelings concerning the gross and shocking brutality of such a prison system. I would rather Tennesseeans should travel on foot for a thousand years the rude trails blazed through the wilderness by our forefathers than to ride in luxury upon a system of HIGHWAYS CONSTRUCTED AT SUCH A SACRIFICE OF HUMANITY AND CHRISTIANITY."

"Costs the taxpayers money?"

Yea. These convict camps of our state cost more than money, which our Governor seems to have forgotten.

There are things which cannot be measured in dollars and cents—Disregarding Georgia's liquor law—

Women and children slaving for the lack of a living wage paid to the man of the house—

The brothel—

The drunk reeling in his ruined home—

The convict's bleeding back—

EACH ONE OF THESE MAY BRING GOLD TO A CLASS, YET COST SO MUCH IN SUFFERING AND SOUL-DESTRUCTION THAT MEN'S HEARTS GROW SICK AND COLD AT THE VERY THOUGHT: AND THEY REVOLT.

You know—

He who prattles of necessary evils—

Or, advocates licensing the sale of liquor—

Or, consents to little children laboring in mills—

Or, glibly defends strike breakers by talking of man's right to sell his labor—

Or, sneers at the thought of trying to save the fallen—yea, even though the man or woman whom men seek to save has been convicted of crime—

SUCH A MAN, WHEN GREAT QUESTIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS ARE AT STAKE, WILL BEGIN TO JEST, OR DO THAT WHICH IS WORSE, URGE INACTION, OR, ANOTHER COURSE, BECAUSE OF THE COST IN DOLLARS AND CENTS OF DOING RIGHT.

He forgets—

Christ, when He died, put a value upon lives and souls: He was crucified for the lowest of the low: He sought—He seeks to save that which is lost.

Oglethorpe, following Him, founded Georgia with the dream and hope, that men here would be helped and saved, not damned by inhuman treatment in jails. What has been the cost of disregarding his wish that neither liquor, nor slavery, should ever be permitted within her borders?

COST? GEORGIANS ARE UNWILLING LONGER TO PAY THE PRICE IN HUMAN DEGRADATION FOR THE CONVICT SYSTEM WHICH GOVERNOR SLATON VAINLY TRIES TO DEFEND.

They will not always tolerate the cost in crime of our liquor laws being broken by men in office.

Today they are understanding the frightful price paid in despoiling children of childhood to make dividends—The cost of forcing families to live upon less than a living wage.

It costs—

Putting men in office, who will refuse to betray their fellowman, regardless of his place or position in life, will cost you time and thought.

But Georgians are seeing that with the ballot they may serve God—With a vote they may destroy or save life by putting the wrong or right man in office—The man in public office is but the expression of your will.

You will pay the price.

WHEN NEXT YOU GO TO VOTE, YOU WILL REMEMBER THE MAN IN CHAINS, THE BROKEN LAWS AGAINST THE LIQUOR TRADE, THE BROTHEL, THE CHILD IN THE MILL, AND THE LACK OF A LIVING WAGE: AND YOU WILL THINK, BEFORE YOU VOTE.

Jesus asked:

"What is a man profited if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his own self?"

It costs.

Rain Prevented Last Game With Vols; Lookouts Here For Five Games

Vols Get Best Of Set-to-With Dodger Pres.

National Commission Upholds Contention of Nashville Club Against Brooklyn in Case of Player Kraft.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 19.—Through the efforts of President Clyde Shreve, of the Nashville Baseball Club, with the Kraft case as a net-drum, it has been demonstrated that a minor league organization has some rights and can secure justice against the larger organizations, which have to some extent in the past considered that they had a higher right when it came to players and, also that agreements did not have to be definitely adhered to.

President Ebbets, of the Brooklyn Nationals, got his clutches on Kraft, who justly claimed by Nashville. Ebbets was for taking things in a high handed manner when with the national commission, got lost with the national commission, with the result that the Dodger leader had to take water in doing so. He wished to attach certain restrictions to the release that would leave the gate in effect a loss. Then he wanted to take a pitcher with "heat" for Kraft, but Shreve likewise turned this proposition down. For him it's Kraft or no one, but that is hardly likely to be further row, as Garry Hermann, of the National commission, has set his foot down and upheld Shreve in the contention.

Hereafter, with a victory won out in this case by the Southern league, it is doubtful if the major organizations will attempt to take a rank advantage and try the run-around. In the past the major organizations have stood for some raw deals because of the prevailing opinion that the walk-around was the only one. Times have changed, and it will take a long time at least to get to all that is coming.

MAY TRADE KRAFT.
The offer of a pitcher to the Volunteers, though, opens up a kind of argument that strikes close to Nashville, for there is no denying that another pitcher and especially a left-hander, is much needed. Schwartz has a fairly represents his stock in trade in the left hand, and it is conceded a certainty that the left-hander cannot overstep the line when left-handers are needed, and it will take a long time at least to get to all that is coming. The Vols have been a place that will make Kraft available as a regular on the team, since about all he can do is hit, and while he is rather a weak hitter, but he is a good one. In that respect, the Vols have quite a hit. The Vols have been a place that will make Kraft available as a regular on the team, since about all he can do is hit, and while he is rather a weak hitter, but he is a good one. In that respect, the Vols have quite a hit.

GRANT HOME RECORD.
The work of the Volunteers in annexing seventeen out of the twenty-four games they have played on the road, has risen in the first division, has stamped the aggregation as a sure enough pennant contender, despite the fact that at the first dash out of the box, they dropped three games at Atlanta, after hitting the road. Atlanta has a strong team, and the fact that the games were won by a close margin, one of them in the thirteen innings, shows the class of the present fashion.

The Volunteers have settled down to a steady stride, with no more of the working smoothly and pitchers getting, save for an occasional hobble, a kind of support that is gilt edge. The stick work seems to be good, with the lower portion of the batting order getting there frequently and of late, making quite a something with the hitting end. Unless some hard luck overtakes the team it will keep in the running right along now, and the men are all confident that they will be able to get a good account of themselves. Moreover, they cannot accept any explanation that any of the other stragglers are showing on the Volunteer bunch. At least, such will not be accepted in a practical manner.

The mention of pennant contenders, the race from the present Nashville out, seems to center around the Volunteers, Mobile, Chattanooga, Atlanta and New Orleans, with of act in the running by a grand sport, as the season is yet young enough for the Atlanta to be considerably upset. Nevertheless, the team have well played struck, their stride and none bolstered or crippled, bid fair to move along in pretty much the present fashion.

CHATTANOOGA, June 19.—Memphis played grand ball behind Merritt and hit Boyd in timely fashion, easily winning Chattanooga Thursday. The local club made costly errors and was sluggish on the bases, missing many chances to score. BASEBALL EXPERIENCING TERRIFIC LOSS; WAR OF LEAGUES DISASTROUS TO GAME

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON.
The time has come to speak for the few plain words about baseball, for the information of lovers of the game, who are rapidly cooling in their love, and to certain players, owners and promoters. The public is getting disgusted with all of them; and more especially with the players. The worst Federal league move is but a new blow to the game. It will take the game five years to get back to where it was one year ago, if it ever does. This applies to

Speaker
Davenport
Eddie Collins
Ty Cobb
Jake Daubert

major league stars claimed by the Federal for next season.

The major leagues, it is doubtful whether the harm done to the minor leagues ever can be repaired. The Federal league is in bad tactical position. It shot its bolt early in the season. The fans, who welcomed and saw evidence and badly balanced clubs. The brand of baseball served was not up to standard of major league baseball. They quit going to the games. They had to force their way into organized ball as an equal major league or break up one of the existing leagues. All over the country the minor leagues were crying for protection—and not getting it. The National league seemed to have a watchful waiting policy, standing ready to intervene. The promoters came to me for my opinion as to the success of the venture. I told them that money greed may be the cause of the failure. I told them that the Federal league was a new element came into control and that the public had to be educated in the raising policy they chose a half-way one.

At the start they did not know the business. Had they intended to spend half the money they have spent on a quarter what they will spend, they could have grabbed all major league players before the defense could have organized. The Feds are now in this position: They must get great stars to renew interest in their organization. They must build up a fair following in several cities. At the moment they are not getting great players—and they are after them. John, Cobb, Chase, more than a dozen others have gone or agreed to go to the Feds. More than forty star players are bound by written agreements to the new league when their contracts expire.

The latest idea is to have the players serve ten-day notices upon their employers. If a player will not work both ways and if the courts sustain the owners' right to release players on "days" notice, why not the other way round? If the courts sustain it, and it will be fought in the courts.

WHAT BIG BUSINESS DID YESTERDAY.
Beals Becker pulled a "John Anderson" in the seventh inning of the game between the Cubs and Phillies. He easily stole third, with Pitcher Oeschger on hand. However, Beals contributed the usual home run for his club. The Boston Red Sox made fourteen hits out of the usually stingy Jim Scott, who pulled out three of these. This Speaker had a home run in the ninth, and including a triple. This same club got just one hit off of Walter Johnson, a White Sox rookie, Wednesday.

This reason why Brooklyn is trailing far down in the National league race. Wednesday they made two triples, a double and six singles. In addition to which the Cubs lost four bases and made one wild pitch. Three bases were stolen, and yet the Dodgers scored one run. Kid Elberfeld was sent up in a pinch in the ninth and delivered with a single.

Sam Crawford had a busy day with his bat in the game between Detroit and Washington. Wahne Sam clouted three hits in three times at bat, including a double and a triple. Kavanagh hit a home off of Walter Johnson.

Thirty players were used by the Cardinals and the Braves in their game at Boston. The former used sixteen and won the game. Ty Wingo was used as pinch hitter in the ninth, and delivered a hit that helped secure the two runs that won for the Cardinals.

DIANA DILLPICKLES IN "A VERY WONDERFUL RECOVERY"

A 4-REEL "SCREECHER" FILM

"IT'S SUCH A PITY, MISS DILLPICKLES, THAT YOU HAD TO SPRAIN YOUR ANKLE."

"RUSHES IS MY NAME. YES, I DANCE. I LOVE IT!"

"SO DO I, MR. RUSHES. AND I WANT TO LEARN THAT NEW 'CHILEAN CHICKEN FLOP.'"

"WHY, I COULD TEACH YOU THAT! BY GEORGE, I'D DO IT AS SOON AS YOUR FOOT GETS WELL!"

"ASSIST ME TO GET UP, MR. RUSHES. MAYBE IT'S BETTER ALREADY."

"DECEITFUL!—MINX!"

THE SPOTLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

At first glance there appears to be a touch of magic, in the story of Herzig and his Redland troopers, a touch of magic linked with miracle.

Here we have a young manager—the youngest in baseball—serving his first season at the helm. Under his charge is the youngest ball club in the big league game. He is handed a club that was backed by thirty-year tradition of defeat and disorganization. A club that finally struck the afternoon rocks last season and a club that even such a wise ball player as Joe Tinker found far beyond his comprehension.

AND THEN SOME.

From this club was stalked Tinker, who was supplanted by Herzig. The club, however, on the loss of Becherer to the Giants. And from this demoralized machine the Fed rallied five more—Johnson, Hartley, Packard, Wickland and Marsans. The Reds lost more to the Feds than any other single club.

Here we have a seventh place club raided and looted and further broken up—and then put in charge of a debutante manager. And the answer is that for the first time in many Redland years there is a Cincinnati club within striking distance of the top around the edge of mid-summer.

THE MIRACLE ENTRY.

A number of bizarre turns can develop in baseball, but such an achievement as the above seems to be beyond all past performance or future dream.

And yet the miracle part is simple enough. Herzig has not only impressed his club with the idea that baseball is a business and a profession. He has impressed it with the fact that one factor alone can keep any club up in the game—and that factor is to get out there and hustle. And to hustle all the time—to make a habit of hustling, regardless of the score or the inning.

THE MAIN DETAIL.

But there is still another important feature he has developed. We have always contended that in the main luck breaks about even through all games. The difference is merely in the way clubs accept rough fortune. Most of them curl up and quit after a few lousy wallops from the field judge. Only a few keep on traveling, and one of these few finds it in front.

Has discarded the luck of the game from all calculations," says Herzig. "I figure that I'll get exactly my share of good luck and bad luck. But I'm not complaining yet. I haven't had time to complain. The more luck the Reds have the greater the hustle and the less time there is left in which to sit around and mope."

HEATING LUCK.

"Bad luck," he continued, "can break up any club, if you'll let it. I have never let it break up any club of his. But you can beat it, save in exceptional cases. And the way to beat it is to keep on hustling and fighting all the harder. When the break goes against you—turn and go against the break with just a little more. And the point about everything else is not to let a little bad luck break your spirit or get your word. Bad luck wouldn't be one-fourth as bad if all players would only forget it and let it come. We've followed this system on the Reds this year. We've been too busy playing all the baseball to let it start crying about hard luck. Losing five good men from a seventh-place club is certainly an excuse to start offing an alibi—but I could never see that an alibi made any great improvement in the box score or the standing of the club. And that's the target we're shooting at."

Judging strictly from the above it is no wonder now that Herzig has been the sensation of the year. Eliminating the alibi was a big start. The point of keeping his people in their hustling did the rest.

It is easy to see why the Reds, with poor material as a starter, are up there, just as easy as it is to see why the Pirates, with far better material, sit in the chute.

There must be something wrong with a ball club that could win 14 out of 16 games and then lose 15 out of 17. That something was easy to find. It was Pittsburgh, slumped in against New York. The Pirates won the battle—and yet they went to work with their heads down and with their feet dragging. They had given up the ship. A few victories may set them right again, but they will never be a first-class ball club until they forget how to quit under fire. Any old club can carry the pennant if it has that particular courage of spirit. But the club with a chance to get up there and stay there must learn to meet fortune when it turns. Pittsburgh has developed the habit of fighting hard when the rock was favorable and quitting cold when the luck turned. Until Clark's club can learn how to keep on fighting, regardless of the break, it will never win another flag.

A good part of this insertion of spirit is up to Clark. McGraw has turned the trick with the Giants and Herzig with the Reds. When a ball club breaks and quits you can always gamble that the manager is partly to blame at least.

In the meanwhile the Giants are not playing the greatest baseball in the world. They are displaying quite a cluster of insipid stuff. But no one can ever accuse them of coming up or losing or quitting. They are playing about all the baseball they know how to play—even if this hasn't been an exceptional amount so far.

Players Seek New Locations

Following "Blow-Up" of Appalachian League, Athletics Join Different Circuits

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 19.—Following the "blowing" process of the Appalachian league, Athletics have been forced to leave the city today for other fields of endeavor.

"Jimmy" Burke, the hard-hitting first baseman and outfielder, will join Mike Finn's Memphis squad, where there is little question but that he will make good. Burke is an old teammate of Howard Merritt, the young left-hander who is pitching good ball for the Turkeys this season. Burke knocked two home runs in the last game played by the Knoxville team this week.

Captain Roy Clunk, also an outfielder, and a player who has been hitting .389 in the Appalachian league this year, will likely enter the Ohio State League.

Third baseman Watson and Pitcher Vee Anderson will join the Asheville squad in the North Carolina League, while Players Knox, Sheen, McCarty and Stewart will in all probability go to the Golden team in the Georgia-Alabama league.

The Appalachian league disbanded because of poor attendance in all the towns. No effort will be made to reorganize the circuit this season.

Seymour Turns Swimming Pro.

Many Atlanta people will be interested to know that J. W. Seymour, the otherwise known as "Nick," has turned professional swimmer under the management of Prof. C. M. Davis, of Atlantic City.

Seymour is well known here, having lived in Atlanta nearly all his life. Within the last few years he was identified with local boxing circles and for a while was Jimmy Terry's sparring partner.

Now in Birmingham, where he has a position as life guard and swimming instructor at Lake Park. He has made a good showing at East Lake winning a five-mile race there last Sunday.

On July 1 Seymour will go to Atlantic City with Prof. Davis, where he is entered in the ten-mile race, one of the most famous races in the country. From there he goes to the Chicago season. His Atlanta friends are pulling for his success.

Comiskey Sees Dire Results

CHICAGO, June 19.—Baseball gate receipts have fallen off heavily and three major leagues this year will make less money than two did last year. This statement was made yesterday by Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago Americans. Comiskey declared that the public was weary of the wrangles and contract jumping talk and the emphasis on salaries which had thrown into the background the sporting features of the pastime.

"Minor leagues will suffer the same as the majors," said Comiskey. "It is the present time, if there is room for three leagues, well and good. The gate receipts will tell the story. The players have a right to get more money if their services in jumping their contracts. It is not so much a question of losing as it is of keeping up the standard of the game. If that is lowered the public will desert it."

Lookouts Release Pitcher Fox

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 19.—Pitcher Fox of the local team was sold Thursday night to the Harrisburg club of the Tri-State League. Manager McCormick had to release Fox to make room for Pitcher Paige and Infielder Shanley, two new acquisitions to the Lookouts.

Carrollton Won Again

CARROLLTON, Ga., June 19.—Carrollton took the second game of the series from Griffin Thursday by a score of 7 to 1. The first game went to the home team by the tune of 19 to 6. The feature of this game being the pitching of Hubert of Carrollton, who struck out 16 and allowed only 2 hits. The home team playing errorless ball behind him.

Pels Buy Pitcher

NEW ORLEANS, June 19.—Manager Dobbs, of the New Orleans Southern league team, announced today that he had obtained Pitcher Omar Ben from the Cleveland American association club and that he would report in a few days. Ben is a five-foot pitcher and one of the pitchers now carried by the local club.

Releasing Mordecai Brown on the grounds that he is too good a fellow to be a good manager must have caused some of the other managers to wrinkle their brows and wonder what it meant.

Major Leaguers Plan Defense

National Commission Meets in New York to Consider Means of Fighting Federals

NEW YORK, June 19.—To plan a campaign against the Federal league club that recently have secured the services of many players from the ranks of organized baseball is said to be the object of the meeting here today of the National Baseball commission. The commission also has before it the ultimatum of Manager Dunn, of the Baltimore International league club, to waive the draft rule and chase the interloper as a major league or see the Baltimore team transferred by sale to Richmond, Va.

While Garry Hermann, chairman, and President Tener, of the National league, who constitute the National commission, are wrestling with plans to foil the attacks on organized baseball by the Federal league, the members of the board of directors of the National league will discuss matters dealing solely with that organization. It is reported that the Federal league also will come in for its share of attention by the National league board of directors.

The appearance of Charles P. Taft in the city today gave rise to rumors that the Chicago Cubs were to pass under the control of a new president to succeed Thomas. This was denied by Taft, who said that he had no power to name a new president for the Chicago club and that his visit here had nothing to do with baseball.

Billies Buy Pitcher Day

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 19.—Pitcher Day Thursday was purchased by the Thomasville, Ga., State league club and will report here Monday morning. He is a right hander. Last season he won sixteen and lost six games. This year he was the mainstay of the club in winning the championship for the first half of the season, which recently closed.

Studebaker Pathfinder

A Studebaker "Six" was the pathfinder car for the Philadelphia inquirer's recent Atlantic City run. This car, driven by H. R. DeLozier, also acted as pilot car for the tour itself, and distributed the confetti.

Semi-Finals in Tennis Tourney

ATLANTA, Ga., June 19.—The semi-finals in the South Atlantic states tennis tournament are to be played today in men's singles, weather permitting, and the finals will probably be played tomorrow afternoon. The championship, both in men's doubles, singles and the consolation, will not be decided until next week. Great interest is centered in the semi-final matches in singles.

YOUR MONEY

When Investors
Go to School.
By JOHN M. WATSON.

Assume that you are one of the country's thirty, ones; you lay by a cer-

Suppose you acknowledged to yourself that you knew nothing about the science of investment, but that you were willing to learn. What chance have you got to get good instruction?

Recently, I received the literature of an organization that undertakes to instruct investors by mail. I was interested in the outline of the course for ordinary investors—cost $50.

In that outline I found thirty-seven headings, constituting so many "lessons."

There were six lessons on bonds, taking them up in a general way and then discussing them to specific issues. The nine lessons dealing with stocks to analyze and compare railroad, traction, lighting, gas, water, telephone, industrial, and irrigation, real estate, and steamship securities.

A lesson was devoted to choosing the most desirable securities among the classes discussed, one on choosing the

This is a first-rate list of subjects for the investor to study if he cares seriously to make himself familiar with the science. I don't imagine that subjects like these are highly exciting to the average man. The subjects for light reading. Still, I think more men with surplus dollars should handle more men to give some such course a try. Why let the bankers monopolize financial education?

SIX SHIP LINES ALREADY TO MAKE USE OF CANAL

Companies Notify Officials They Will Make Regular Use of Waterway

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Six established steamship lines already have served notice upon the Panama canal management of their intention to make regular use of the waterway. One vessel from the west coast ports of South America will be at the Pacific gates of the canal July 1, seeking to make her way to Liverpool by that route and thus to initiate a fortnightly service between Liverpool and the west side of South America.

An American steamship line now operating four steamers on the Pacific side and six on the Atlantic are waiting the opening of the canal to merge all ten into a regular line between San Francisco and New York. Hawaiian sugar, which has already begun to come through the canal on barges, being shipped at either end, will be carried in unbroken caravans from Honolulu.

lulu to New York just as soon as Governor Goethals gives the word that regular steamships may use the waterway. The most ancient of British colonial bodies, the West India company of London, which was established in 1750, has expressed a desire to be represented at the official opening of the Panama canal and its request is under consideration by the committee in charge of the ceremonies.
